DOTHAN, ALABAMA SATURDAY EVENING DECEMBER 12, 1903

NUMBER 69

AREL PAIGE AND COMPANY

Here Three Nights Next Week.

The greatest event of the season for the Theatre-going public at Dothan, will be the coming of Arel Paige and Company direct from the Dixie Theatre, South Jacksonville, with the entire cast they have appeared there for the past five months.

The Company is on their way from Chattanooga to play stock for the balance of the winter and are carrying the entire cast on the account. Miss Paige has the strongest support that she ever had. She is supported by actors and actresses of ability and versatility as Clarence Chase, Edward Lawrence, Earl P. Adams, Harry Castle, Cliff Watson, Harry Wellington, Miss Amy Laird, Miss Florence Hill, Miss Octavia Margaret Watson, and Miss Edna Watson.

Miss Paige will open her engagement here Thursday night, Dec. 17th, in the celebrated Cuban Military Drama, "For Liberty and Love," which will be presented with the full strength of the Company and special scenic effects. This bill consists of many strong scenes, splendid comedy situations and startling climaxes, never failing to elicit most enthusiastic applause and numerous curtain calls. In fact, this was one of the strongest productions presented by the Company while playing at Dixie.

The second bill for Friday night, Dec. 18th, will be the beautiful play "At Cosy Corners," in which Miss Paige starred for an entire season at high prices, in which she will appear as a beautiful violinist, an art in which she excels. For the closing night, Saturday, Dec. 19th, the Company will present the funniest of all farce comedies entitled "How Flipper was Lipped." Miss Paige will also be seen to great advantage in this bill. Mr. Edward Lawrence will be seen as Flipper in which part he has made a great previous reputation. Mr. Harry B. Castle will be seen in the part of Prof. Barton, an almost stone-deaf Physical Cultivist with a hair lip and in this part he keeps his audience in one continuous uproar during the whole time he holds the center of the stage.

The specialties between the acts will comprise the four singing and dancing Watsons, who have been conceded by the press throughout the United States as one of the strongest Specialty teams of their kind. Mr. Earl P. Adams, Mr. Edward Lawrence and Miss Hill all fine singers, will also contribute to the general interest of the programme.

Reserved Seat Sale opens Monday, December 14th, at Smith's Drug Store.

CONFERENCE APPOINTMENT.

The Alabama Conference is in session at Greensboro this week. The people of this denomination in Dothan feel a deep interest in the next year's appointments and whether or not there are to be any changes here. We have made arrangements to have the appointments wired to us as soon as received, so we can publish them in Monday's edition of the Eagle.

The Moving Picture people are already showing the Thanksgiving Day automobile races which were held in Savannah two weeks ago and attracted so great attention throughout the country.

FOR SALE.

My house and lot on North Oakes street. If interested, see J. W. GRANT, 30

P. J. Ward, Tax Collector of Geneva County, was in Dothan last night.

MORE RUNAWAYS TODAY.

This morning about ten o'clock, Jim Henderson, while driving his mail wagon down College street near the School building one half of his wagon became detached from the harness which frightened his horse, and caused him to begin to run. The scared animal dashed off and turned in a St. Andrew St. and down that street to Main, with only the front axle and one wheel attached. After passing a hundred vehicles and clearing them all, he finally, when turning into Oakes street and in front of Jones' Cafe, he ran into Mr. Frank Morpher's buggy and caused his horse to dash off.

Mr. Morpher's buggy contained his two little boys, who seeing the danger approaching, jumped from the buggy and saved themselves. The buggy soon came in collision with a light pole and hung up on that.

The horse was well nigh run down when he reached the post office, where he had been accustomed to go for the mail. The wagon was almost demolished in the runaway.

In the smash up Jones' peanut roaster got a lick from a flying wheel and was upset with more or less damage.

WHY NOT A SYRUP REFINERY.

We have mentioned from time to time the superior advantages possessed by the farmers of this section in the matter of cane growing, and have an article in another column today upon this subject.

But before any great increase in cane or syrup production is decided upon, there must be a market for the product.

Why don't some enterprising citizen establish a syrup refinery in Dothan? There is big money in the business for the manufacturer and it would be the means of increasing the planting of a profitable crop for the farmer who exactly needs other crops than cane.

Let's have the refinery established at once, so as to allow the farmer time to put in additional cane acreage for next year.

Mr. T. D. Sale wife and three children, from Southport, Fla. arrived in Dothan yesterday, and are stopping at Hot T Mullen. Mr. Sale will remain in the city and probably buy a home here. Do they have a superior school facilities were the principal attractions here, which decided this gentleman to interested in a large saw mill in Florida.

It looks like the Alabama Conference would change the date of holding their conference and moving the preachers around right at the time when they can least afford to be moving. Just about a week before Christmas, and such another moving. It looks like a date cracker in the fall would be more suitable, when the weather would likely be better.

WHY NOT HERE?

A citizen who has been spending some time over in Georgia, and around Cairo, brings back a good report of the condition of the farms in that section of the country. He says that they sell all of the syrup they make over there, on the platform at the station, at 20c per gallon netting about $10.00 a barrel. As something like twenty-five barrels of syrup are made to the acre, such proves a profitable business. He says too, that many farmers in that section raise collard seed for the market, which takes but little or no work, and they bring at rates of about $75.00 per acre.

The county in which Cairo is located has about 20,000 people, and there are two little banks, one with a capital stock of $25,000, with a $100,000 deposit; while the other has $35,000 capital and $175,000 deposits. The bankers said that most of that money belonged to the farmers of that section.

NEW STUDIO.

Mr. J. C. Trammel, our live photographer, has in the last few days completed arrangements with Mr. W. A. Grigsby, formerly of Tallahassee, Fla., to take an active interest with him in the photograph business.

Mr. Grigsby comes highly recommended as an up-to-date photographer, having had a broad experience in St. Louis, Kansas City and other large cities, he no doubt will prove a valuable assistant to Mr. Trammel.

They are already making improvements in their studio and with the additional equipments Mr. Grigsby brings with him they will have one of the most up-to-date studios in Alabama, and are prepared to turn out work that will suit the most fastidious trade. When it comes to business, they don't hesitate to say that if they find a dissatisfied customer, they cheerfully refund their money.

They are prepared to make all kinds of up-to-date photos. Their Postal Cards, in the Air Ship, on the Auto and the Pig, is something catchy. Call at their Studio, 51 East Main street. You will be well paid for your trouble whether you have a sitting of photos or not.

APPOINTED DELEGATE.

Goy, Camer has appointed Probate Judge Geo. Leslie a delegate to the Fourth Annual Conference of Weights and Measures, to be held at the Bureau of Standards, Washington, D. C., on Thursday, Dec. 17th, 1903.

The object of this Conference is for the purpose of inducing every state in the Union to adopt a uniform standard of weights and measures for all products, which is not now the case. For instance, a bushel of cotton seed in one thing in Alabama and another in Georgia. Such differences should not exist and it is the purpose of this congress to remedy such differences and make a uniform weight for the same article in every State and Territory in the Union.

LOOK HERE BOYS.

We are told that every time the high school reports have been sent out this year, about 50 per cent of the deficient marks, or charged up to the girls, although there are a few more boys in the high school than girls. This is rather unusual, for we all had a general idea that the girls were just a step or two in the lead, when it came to learning things in school. There is some cause for this lack of scholarship among the girls, and the mothers and fathers should look into it. It will never do for the great big ugly boys to stay ahead of the girls.

Misses Ruby and Jimmie McDavid are in the city today with friends.

All bright men and women don't have bright boys and girls.

What pleases one man in a paper makes another so mad he will hardly speak to it.

If all the roads were level and smooth, we'd have no rivers, and that would never do.

The country editor has a perilous position. Champ Clark was on it, and you see what he got into.

Roosevelt wants to sue somebody for libel, forgetting that some one else might have some rights in the courts.

President Roosevelt's Ananias Club must be limited, for membership is not granted to the South, so rapidly as other sections.

Many people spend valuable time hunting bargains, and then spend more time and money trying to get them off their hands.

"Things are not what they appear to be," is such an old saying till it no longer has any meaning.

The wisest of our race went sadly astray, and were too infernally treacherous to be even sent for.

If Mr. Tuft gets down as far as Jacksonville, it is useless for him to go back north before passing through Dothan, as Mr. Roosevelt did that much, on one of his trips.

John D. gave a five cent tip the other day, and another increase in Oil is looked for in some circles, but we hardly think he will take the advantage of that, to put the price up.

Whenever a man wants to leave Texas, had enough to do, go through on a wagon back to Alabama, you may bet that he will make a good Alabama citizen ever after. That fellow who passed through yesterday did that.

The man who has a home in Dothan, has his children in school here, has a job that he can make an honest living without looking too bad about, has an appetite and the grub to back it up, has as near all the squirrels up one tree as he can get.

The man living in this town looking to this town for the business that enables him to live, owes the town as good a word as he can give to it.

It seems now that President Roosevelt has mentored the displeasure of congress by ordering an old depot to be torn down and now congress wants to know by what authority that was done. The question failed to bring out the statement as to whether the President got mad and had it torn down for being an eye sore, or whether he thought it took valuable room that was needed for other purposes.

GO TO NEW ORLEANS.

The statement has been given out that the Steamer Manteo will on January first begin making regular trips to New Orleans, stopping on the way at both Pensacola and Mobile. STATEMENT MADE BY HENRY W. TAFT.

New York, December 10.—Mr. Cromwell's statement was shown to Henry W. Taft, brother of the President-elect, and half brother of Charles P. Taft, tonight. He read it carefully and wrote the following statement: "Neither my brother Charles, nor I, nor any member of our family, directly or indirectly, had any interest in, or made any profit from the purchase of the Panama canal by our government. None of us was interested, directly or remotely, in any syndicate or underwriting agency having any stock or interest in the stock of any company which ever had anything to do with the Panama canal. None of us had any connection directly or indirectly, with any of the transactions leading up to the transfer of the canal to our government."

Why Take Unnecessary Steps

Dear Mr. H. H. H.

Some day when you will be preparing up after it all, I wish you would remember and count the steps she takes in the kitchen. Then after you have counted them, you will find out how many steps she takes in the kitchen.

She can save these thousands of steps every day just as well as she can save the money. I wish you would remember and count the steps she takes in the kitchen. Then after you have counted them, you will find out how many steps she takes in the kitchen.

It saves steps to the cupboard to the sink to the table and to the pantry.

It saves her time for the next day when she has her pleasure keeps her mind from being so tired of food, time and patience. It keeps her mind from making her work lighter.

It is a little thing for you to do this thing all for her. It is a little thing for you to do this thing all for her. It is a little thing for you to do this thing all for her. It is a little thing for you to do this thing all for her.
